

LUDLOW INFANT ACADEMY

Our School Aims, Ethos and Values

Believe, Achieve, Succeed

At Ludlow Infant Academy, our vision is to inspire and motivate, persevere and reflect, to achieve a lifelong love for learning.

We believe that the ethos and values of our school are at the heart of our work. We learn and care together, respecting and valuing all.

We aim

- To deliver the highest quality learning experience for all our pupils thereby ensuring the highest levels of attainment and a love of learning.
- To inspire and motivate our learners through the provision of an exciting curriculum tailored to their needs.
- To demonstrate clearly our strong commitment to personalising learning by ensuring our children are challenged, supported and valued.
- To be a reflective learning community with a strong sense of our place in our local, national and international communities.
- To provide a healthy, happy, secure environment where all are valued, respected and celebrated and issues of disadvantage and underachievement are tackled.
